HOAGLAND'S
NEW PATENT SHAFT COUPLING!
W. E. COOPER

HAS PURCHASED THE RIGHT FOR THIS County of the above Patent, and will hereafter use it in the construction of all the Vehicles manufactured at his extensive

Carriage Factory,
Corner of Second and Morrison Streets.
He respectfully refers to the following
CARD.

Having examined the New Patent Shaft Coupling, invented by H. R. Hoagland, we feel pleasure in informing the public that in our opinion it is the safest and best method of connecting shafts or tongues to all vehicles that has ever been used.

It fastens without bolt or screw, and is therefore, easily and speedily separated. It rests on Gutta Percha so as to be entirely free from the rattling sound which so often disturbs restless horses. It is easily changed so that the shafts or tongue may be detached in an instant, and is convenient, safe and secure.

It is easy to change to this style of coupling any buggy or other vehicle now in use, and with small expense. We have come to the conclusion to use this new invention ourselves and recommend its use in all cases. We consider it far superior to the Brewster Patent, heretofore considered the best in use.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

EASTERN DATES TO DECEMBER 14.

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—In the House resolutions were introduced for the Committee of Ways and Means to inquire into the expediency of abolishing the offices of Collectors and Assessors and other agents of the Internal Revenue Department, and apportioning the amount of taxes required to be raised from domestic sources among the several States in proportion to their population; also one declaring that the American people learn with horror and indignation of the treatment of American citizens held as political prisoners under the English government, that no language is adequate to condemn such treatment, and urging the national Executive as a duty to intervene in their behalf.

Washington News.

CHICAGO, Dec. 14.—Washington specials say the President has determined to withdraw the nomination of Yeaman as Circuit Judge for the Ohio and Kentucky District, the opposition to his appointment being so strong.

A bill will be reported in the House providing for the creating of a new department to be called the Department of Home Affairs. It will have control of the Indians, Freedmen, education, agriculture and supervision of immigration.

The Senate Judiciary committee have substantially agreed upon a bill in reference to Georgia. They base their action on the decision of the Supreme Court, that the State's declaring for the exclusion of the negro members was illegal. The bill proposes to set the State back where she was before these members were elected. Great difficulty is found in dealing with the legislation that has taken place since the expulsion, and it is not known how the committee will treat this question in the Senate.

Yesterday Trumbull, from the committee on Judiciary, reported favorably a bill prohibiting recommendation to office by members of Congress. The clause allowing such recommendation when made in response to written applications from the heads of departments was stricken out.

Drake made a long and elaborate speech in support of a bill prohibiting Courts of the United States from deciding an act of Congress unconstitutional.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—Owing to the non-reception of certain printed documents, the committee on Reconstruction have postponed further consideration of the Virginia question until Saturday. The committee has taken no action in the case of the State of Georgia.

New York News.

CHICAGO, Dec. 14.—A New York special says a conspiracy to kindle several fires in the city simultaneously, was discovered through the confession of a drunken man.

The Cuban Junta had a secret meeting Saturday night and resolved on extreme measures, but the nature of the action is not revealed.

In the case of White against Mattoon in the Supreme Court to-day, Senator Mattoon testified he had entered into speculations with the plaintiff for the purchase of a thousand shares of Erie stock, he, Mattoon, engaging to afford White information obtained by him as a member of the Legislative committee on Central and Erie Roads, on condition of receiving one-half of the profits of the speculation. Mattoon declined to answer several questions regarding the transaction on the ground that his answers would degrade him.

NEW YORK, Dec. 15.—Conrad Feltser & Son, lithographers, on William street, were arrested, charged with forging and printing counterfeit revenue stamped checks. About sixty thousand dollars' worth of counterfeit checks were found on the premises.

Mr. Webster, counsel for the Spanish gunboats, formally moved a dismissal of the libel against them, and the court granted the motion. It is probable that fifteen of them will get away to-morrow. The engineers, firemen and coal heavers were ordered to report on board early Wednesday.

It is stated that the report of the Commissioner of Revenue, Wells, will be ready to send to Congress on Thursday.

The Assistant Treasurer sold to-day one million gold.

Georgia Chivalry on the Rampage.

NEW YORK, Dec. 14.—A Tribune's special from Atlanta says, General Morgan, a leading Democratic member of the Georgia Legislature, has published a rejoinder to Congressman Pitt's letter in which he says: "Neither the Senate nor House intended to submit the question of ineligibility of colored members to seats in the Legislature to the Supreme Court. The present Legislature never will rise at the negro, nor will it pass the Fifteenth Amendment. These are settled facts. For myself, I have been a submissionist as long as I intend to be, and have gone as far as I intend to go, to gratify the unhallowed will and domineering spirit of Congress."

Democratic papers quote the above as a manly sentiment, having the ring of true metal. Gen. Morgan holds the seat of an expelled negro member. The Press denounces Gen. Terry as an infamous liar, and advocates making the State too hot to hold the friends of the administration! An attempt was made to assassinate S. H. Donnell and Peter O'Neil, Republican members of the Legislature, at Milledgeville, recently.

Illinois Constitutional Convention.

CHICAGO, Dec. 14.—The Illinois Constitutional Convention will meet to-day, at Springfield. There is much speculation about the organization of the Convention, parties being so evenly balanced. The straight Republican caucus nominated James Medill of the Chicago Tribune, who peremptorily declines. A caucus of Republicans and Democrats, elected on citizens tickets, have nominated Chas. Hitchcock, of Chicago, as President, who will probably be elected to day. Hitchcock is a Republican, elected on a citizens ticket. The other officers will be divided among Republicans and Democrats.

Boston Municipal Election.

BOSTON, Dec. 14.—The vote for Mayor Shurtliff, on citizens ticket is 11,293; Baldwin, Democrat, 1,197; Chase, labor reform, 151; Johnson, temperance, 315. The Council is largely Republican. W. H. Kent, anti annexation-to-Boston candidate, was elected Mayor of Charleston to-day by four hundred majority.

E. Daniels, champion of Massachusetts, and Melville Foster played two games of billiards last evening. The first was the French carom game, 150 points, won by Daniels; Foster scoring 144. The second, 750, on carom table, won by Foster. Score 750 and 645.

West Indies.

NEW YORK, Dec 14.—A Santiago dispatch to the Herald states that a Haytian steamer was seized on the coast and taken to that place on suspicion of having landed arms for the Cubans. 700 men of Valmaseda's battalion has arrived. Fighting at Margate continues. Cholera is decreasing. The Cubans are in full possession of the northern part of the island and are making extensive preparations to attack Port au Prince. Five steamers belonging to the insurgents are coaling for the purpose of joining the attack. Salnave is reported at Petionville. Port au Prince is reported as in a wretched condition. One dollar in gold is selling for one thousand in Haytian currency.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec 14.—The Haytian steamer Triumph, formerly the rebel ram Atlanta, broke the bed plate of her condenser going down the river to Red Bank and to Chester where she was repairing.

Kentucky Senator.

LOUISVILLE, Dec. 15.—The Legislature took one ballot for United States Senator to-day. In the Senate—Stevenson, 13; McCreery, 12; Turner, 6; scattering, 5. House—Stevenson, 41; McCreery, 34; Turner, 11; Findley, 8; scattering, 8. McCreery will probably be elected to-morrow, as a number of scattering votes are known to be for him.

The Washington Exhibition.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—In the Senate the Committee on the District of Columbia, to-day agreed to report a bill to encourage the International Exhibition at Washington in 1871.

Perils of the Sea.

HAVANA, Dec 14.—Kingston (Jamaica) advices to November 30th, have been received. The steamer Estrella, while sailing from Cape Haytien to Port au Prince sprung a leak on the night of November 27th. A large crack was discovered below the water line, upon the discovery of which, a panic ensued among the passengers and crew. Five passengers, including Mr. Gregg, the American Consul at Kingston, escaped in a small boat and reached San Nicolas. A perfect pandemonium prevailed but by the efforts of the officers the Estrella was kept afloat and reached Mole St. Nicolas early on Sunday where she was met by a [illegible] which took her passengers off and brought them to this city where they arrived this morning.

Crimes and Casualties.

ELMIRA, N. Y., Dec. 14.—The Northern Central Railroad office was broken into last night, the safe blown open and checks and drafts to the amount of $12,000 stolen. There is no clue to the perpetrators.

BOSTON, Dec 14.—The Morocco Factory of C. Perkins, of Charlestown, was destroyed by fire last evening. Loss $70,000.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec 14.—Net McLaughlin, on trial for complicity in the Brooks assassination case, was found guilty.

CINCINNATI, Dec 14.—A farmer named [illegible] was run over on the Indianapolis and Cincinnati Railroad to-day and mortally injured. The wagon was demolished and one horse killed.

BOSTON, MASS., Dec 14.—The Journal mentions that a rumored defalcation to the amount of fifty thousand dollars at the Howard National Bank, was discovered during the examination of the affairs of the bank by the Government Commissioners. The loss will not affect the capital of the bank.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Dec. 14.—Cornelius Donoghue, of Titusville, Pa., to day obtained a verdict in the Supreme Court for $30,000 damages sustained at the West Hope disaster.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE

LONDON, Dec 14.—The trial of Rev. Mr. Gurney and others commenced at Guildhall. Keanelly opened for the prosecution. Chief Justice Cockburn presided.

There is news from Pekin that the treaty between Great Britain and China, negotiated by Burlingame, has been ratified by the Chinese government.

The steamer Monarch, having the remains of Geo. Peabody, has not yet put to sea, owing to a heavy gale.

The remains of George Peabody were received on board the iron-clad Monarch on Saturday. The ceremony was attended by many demonstrations of respect. Several distinguished persons accompanied the remains to the place of embarkation, where they were received by the city authorities of Portsmouth and the officers of the marines of the Monarch and the United States steamer Plymouth. The ships in the harbor displayed their flags at half mast and dipped their ensigns as the Monarch steamed out, and minute guns were fired. Minister Motley addressed Captain Commerelle, commander of the steamer Monarch, referring to the great honor paid Mr. Peabody by the heads of two great nations, and the sending of two war vessels as an escort for ferrying his remains to his native country. On the part of the relatives of the deceased he confided the remains to the Captain's keeping. Capt. Commerelle replied, accepting the sacred trust, assuring him that the remains should be cared for with the most zealous interest.

VIENNA, Dec. 13.—The Emperor Francis Joseph opened the Reichsrath to-day with a long speech. He favored a conciliatory course in dealing with the Dalmatian insurrection. He dwelt on the peaceful appearance of European affairs with satisfaction. The Austrian empire was in excellent relations with foreign Powers, even on points which momentarily caused some trouble. He referred to internal affairs and announced that important concessions would be made to different nationalities. Modifications of the Constitution would be necessary, but they must be made in accordance with its spirit. He closed by promising that the autonomy of the Provinces would be respected as long as it was compatible with maintenance of the unity of the power of the Emperor.

Dispatches from Lisbon report much political agitation in Portugal. A military movement has been commenced by the Duke of Saldahna, which is assuming large and threatening proportions. The breach between the King and the Duke is daily widening. The resignation of the present Ministry is momentarily expected, and as soon as it takes place the King will appoint another that will resist the influence of the Duke of Saldahna.

ROME, Dec. 14.—The Council meets simply for the purpose of attending to the details of organizing committees of faith, discipline, orders, and eastern affairs. These committees comprise eighty-six members. The official list of persons authorized to attend the Council is published. It contains the names of fifty five cardinals, eleven patriarchs 927 archbishops, bishops and abbots, 22 mitred abbots, and 29 generals of religious orders.

NEW YORK, Dec 14.—London specials say Peabody's will has not yet passed probate at the Doctors' Commons. Peabody's property in England is set down at under four hundred thousand pounds. He bequeaths five thousand pounds to each of the executors, and one hundred and fifty thousand pounds to his London charity, payable in three years as directed; a few legacies of minor amounts to individuals, and the remainder to be divided, as provided, among his relatives in America. The trustees are George Peabody Russell, and two other nephews, who are made residuary legatees and empowered to settle the affairs connected with the property in America, which is estimated at from three-fourths to a million dollars.

DUBLIN, Dec. 14.—A gun shop in this city was entered last night by unknown parties and the owner shot. The assassins escaped. Another gun shop was entered shortly after, the owner fired at and a number of pistols taken away.

ROME, Dec 14.—The Bishops have brought a number of addresses by Priests to the Pope from the faithful in all parts of the world.

It is officially stated that since 1865 the Holy See has received one hundred million francs from contributions to Peter's Pence.

GOLD AT ONE HUNDRED AND TWENTY-ONE AND ONE QUARTER.—The "Bull Ring" of gold gamblers have never recovered from the blow which Mr. Boutwell planted squarely in their faces on the 24th of September or "Black Friday," as they feelingly designate the day of their doom. If they had the money they would again "corner" the market and force up gold to a speculative price, but they lack the ammunition for a campaign with so formidable an antagonist as the United States government. They never did have money enough of their own to carry on two days' active hostilities, but before "Black Friday" revealed their hollowness of real resources they were able to make the whole street tributary to their schemes.

Since then they have never recovered their vigor or had strength to assume an aggressive attitude. Respectable and solvent bankers hesitate about furnishing the means to bring about another general "smash-up," and keep shy of large gambling operations. The "crippled ducks" who are daily seen on the street are an effective warning to their fellows, and the brave gamblers who so lately talked loudly of buying all the gold the government could put in the market, are now trembling at every rumor of a new sale of gold by Mr Boutwell.

It seems well understood that the latter means to push gold down to the lowest possible figure before the meeting of Congress, and that he will open a broadside on the "Bull Ring" if they show the slightest symptoms of fight. His success has certainly been marked, if that has been his plan. Last week gold opened at between 126 and 127. It has become gradually weaker, until yesterday, when a cold sweat was sent through the ranks of the "bulls" by the fearful announcement that gold had touched a fraction over 121, the lowest quotation recorded since first gold went above that figure, seven years ago.

Having got to such an unexpectedly low rate, confidence in the maintenance of any considerable gold premium began yesterday to weaken, for the first time since the war. Those who have for so many years regarded a large premium for gold as a legitimate feature in our finances, began to realize the significance of the recent talk about heavy foreign loans at low rates of interest and about resumption of specie payments. The omens of the breaking up of an artificial financial system and of a reaction began to be visible to not a few long headed financiers. Patience, and we shall find ourselves out of the woods, long before we had expected.—N. Y. Mail, Dec. 6.

The New York Herald reviews the question of specie payments. It says: "Specie payments would prove a fiction, and probably we should have to soon suspend again. The only safe course to pursue is to let the currency alone, and to let the country grow up gradually to specie payment in accordance with the laws of nature and of trade."

Defence having been made in a suit brought in Indiana upon the bond of a county officer that the bond was not stamped as required by law, and was therefore void, the Supreme Court of the State has decided that the General Government has no power to impose such a tax upon officers of a State Government, and that the bond of a county officer cannot be rendered void and of no effect by a failure to stamp it.

THURSDAY MORNING, DECEMBER 16, 1869

The Confederate Yell.

There is something of a ferment in Georgia. The chivalry there are out in war paint and feathers, and are discoursing fustian in the most approved time-honored style. This, we believe, is about the first genuine swagger witnessed in that quarter since a certain wholesome little lesson was taught there by one Tecumseh Sherman, a few years ago. Congress proposes to "reconstruct" Georgia anew, so as to make her people obey the laws, and the response that comes from there is something which is intended for a scream of defiance, but which is in reality a yelp of impotent malignity. A lot of usurping rebels took possession of the State Legislature something over a year ago. Their action has been declared unconstitutional by the State Supreme Court, and now Congress proposes to put things to rights again, and compel obedience to the reconstruction laws. "General" Morgan, one of the usurping members of the Legislature, whose military title is suggestive of services and sufferings in the cause of the late "white man's government" of the Confederacy, again unsheaths his sword, waves that fearful whinyard about his head in horrid circles, and declares that he will submit no longer to the requirements of Congress, and that his brethren in the Legislature are equally determined with him on a policy of stern and unyielding resistance. He has been a submissionist as long as he intends to be, and Congress may just as well understand that. The Democratic papers chime in with this champion, and talk of making Georgia "too hot to hold the friends of the administration." This is excellent bravado. If the malcontents of Georgia want another lesson they are in a fair way to get it. They are going to submit, there is no doubt of that; and they have a chance to elect whether they will do it with a graceful willingness or on radical compulsion. Congress will soon pass laws necessary for the case and President Grant is a very proper sort of man to enforce them. The administration will have no nonsense about the matter. When Georgia "accepts the situation" honestly, as Virginia has done, there will be an end of her troubles; but until she does this she may make up her mind to have a hard road to travel.

Dividing the Empire State.

Western New York is beginning to discuss seriously a proposition to divide the State, so as to free the country districts from the [illegible] domination of New York City. The people of western New York can no longer feel certain that their votes will count for anything at any election, because the Tammany arrangements for overcoming them are apparently equal to any requirement. But though the complaints of the people of the country districts are fully justified by the gigantic frauds [illegible] in every election in the cities of New York and Brooklyn, yet the plan that is proposed would be very difficult to accomplish, and if accomplished, would be attended by many disadvantages. The New York Times, while admitting that the feeling and the talk in favor of separation are not unnatural, reminds its country cousins that "the connection between New York State and New York City is not a thing of yesterday, is not merely political, and cannot be dissolved by a popular vote." It declares that the [illegible] election frauds practiced in this city could not be possible and would not be attempted were it not for the condition of the courts. "It is to bad judges," says the Times, "that we owe the thousands on thousands of forged certificates of naturalization which played so prominent a part in Hoffman's election, and which will, as long as the city judiciary is what it is, play a prominent part in every election. Give us Police Magistrates before whom we can take a repeater, or shoulder-hitter, or bullying Inspector, with the certainty that they will commit him for trial, and Judges who will not release him on habeas corpus, but will, if convicted, give him the full penalty of the law, and we may safely promise to make elections in New York as [illegible] as they can be made in any large center of population. The condition of the judiciary, in fact, lies at the root of all our evils, and the country may as well make up its mind that it cannot get rid of us, and had better help us to grow better." This advice is plainly far more practical than the talk of the country counties in favor of dividing the State. Division is impossible, at least for the present, while reform is a thing that can be accomplished, though undoubtedly a great effort will be required to achieve it.

A Chimerical Project.

One of the most absurd propositions yet introduced in Congress is that reported to-day for abolishing all offices in the Internal Revenue Department and apportioning the amount of taxes required to be raised from domestic sources among the States in proportion to their population. This would imply that the General Government is to be asked to give up the subject of internal taxation entirely to the States, and depend on them for its revenue, instead of collecting that revenue by its own authority. To take such a course would be to adopt again the essential vice of the old system of the Confederation, which left the Government entirely dependent on the States for its existence, and which finally blocked its wheels and necessitated the adoption of a new form of government with enlarged powers and so constructed that it could act directly on the people and be wholly free from State control. The adoption of the policy now proposed in Congress with respect to the collection of internal revenue would be to return virtually to that system which was abandoned with the Confederation. The General Government should in all cases exercise its own functions. It derogates from the authority of that Government to give up any of these functions to the States, and to be dependent on their will or pleasure in any matter pertaining to the enforcement of national authority. Such a course would be foreign to the nature of the Government and, if the lessons of the past are to go for anything, it will not be adopted. The Government cannot with safety to itself entrust the collection of its revenue to the States. If it gives up to them the collection of internal revenue why not also the collection of customs? And why not also the enforcement of its authority to the State judicial tribunals? This is a chimerical proposition, and there is not much probability that it will be adopted. It has a very strong flavor of "played out" Democracy.

An Olympia paper says that as Judge Dennison of Washington Territory once gave utterance to the words "if we have any tears to shed over a downfallen Republic, let us shed them now," that the new party should be styled "The Down Fallen Republic Party." Happily named.

Isthmus of Darien Canal.

The survey which our Government has ordered on the Isthmus of Darien will be attempted first upon a route a little to the east of the Panama railroad, just where the narrow Isthmus expands into the continent of South America. The elevation to be overcome at that place is represented as not great; and having passed the summit, which is not far from the coast of the Carribbean Sea, the canal will follow the channel of a considerable river until it falls into the Pacific. But further explorations may discover other routes, so that it is premature to talk about any particular one.

This canal will unquestionably be made, and for much of the trade of the continents and Islands washed by the Pacific and Indian oceans it will be a formidable rival to that by the Red Sea. But from New York to China or Japan the distance by either of these canals is more than double what it is by rail across this continent, and thence across the Pacific. For heavy commerce, however, their value to the world will be very great. The New York Herald thinks the proposed canal may be completed during Gen. Grant's term, and that the project, if pushed through, will be the greatest achievement of his administration.

FOREIGN NOTES.

King William of Prussia has just commuted the sentence of a murderer to imprisonment for life. As the convicted had been proved guilty of murdering four wives in succession and of making way with his two children, all from avaricious motives only, it is believed that the act of clemency betokens the abolition of the death penalty in Prussia.

The French papers are gradually getting "enterprising." One of them publishes a poem, the author of which objected to its having publicity at present, as it is to appear in a book in a few months. The editor states that as it was impossible to conquer the poet's reluctance, "a little subterfuge" had to be employed, consisting in sending a short-hand writer to a theatre where the verses were to be read at a benefit.

It is asserted that the Isthmus of Darien can be canalled without any greater difficulty than the Isthmus of Suez, which is seventy-two miles in width. The Isthmus of Panama is only twenty-eight miles wide, and the Nicaragua route up the river San Juan would only require the construction of a canal sixteen miles long, the remainder of the route being, by way of Lake Nicaragua, ninety miles long, and the river San Juan. The Tehuantepec route 130 miles across from sea to sea, it is asserted, lies throughout along the Coatzacoalcos river.

Brazil begins to feel the cost of her war with Paraguay, for it appears, from the Standard of Buenos Ayres, that the Brazilians are sick of the war, that the whole empire clamors for peace, that property has fallen, that there are failures in every town, that the bankrupt courts are full of cases, that taxation is excessive, that production is crippled, and that all this is laid to the continuance of the Paraguayan war. At the same time the Brazilian War Minister calls for sixty thousand more soldiers—a call which is strenuously opposed in all quarters of the empire.

Samana Bay, the principal harbor of San Domingo, for which our Government has long been negotiating, is the outlet of the Yuna River, and is fifty miles long and from fifteen to twenty miles wide; the ocean gate to it is only a mile wide, and is commanded by an old fort, while high mountains enclose both shores. Twenty-five miles up the bay, upon an inlet to the north, is the town of Samana. The inlet is very deep and almost landlocked, and the bay has been compared at once to the Bay of Naples and to the Chesapeake; to the former for its dazzling tropical and mountain scenery; to the latter for its innumerable wild fowl—ducks, swans, etc. This bay has been pronounced the key to the Gulf of Mexico. Fine beds of coal surround it, and as the coral reefs are extending under the Bahama Channel, navigators say that the future route to Darien and Mexico will be by the Mona Passage, just outside of Samana.

POLITICAL.

The Republicans of Waitsburg, W. T., held a meeting recently and adopted resolutions strongly condemning the bolting faction headed by Dennison and Flanders.

There seems to be some doubt about the result of the Texas election, but as both parties favor the Fifteenth Amendment and a compliance with the requirements of Congress, it makes little difference which is successful.

A Wisconsin Democratic paper doubts whether its party would have been successful if one of the apostles had been nominated for Governor and the Sermon on the Mount adopted as a platform. Of course not, if the candidate and platform had been Democratic.

Political necessity in West Virginia has invented the term "Letuppers," applied to that wing of the Republican party which is disposed to show a liberal spirit toward the disfranchised. In Mississippi the same necessity has given us the term "Bitterenders," applied to those who oppose any concessions.

Seven out of the eight counties in West Florida voted on the question of annexation to Alabama, and the returns show a majority of 485 in favor of the measure. Only about one-third of the voters went to the polls. As the whole of Florida is interested in the question of annexation, it is hardly likely that so slight a majority will induce the rest of the State to consent to the transfer.

The last Legislature of Tennessee authorized the purchase of a portrait of Gen. George H. Thomas for the State Library. The present Legislature has ordered this portrait to be removed and sold for the benefit of the State Treasury. The whole idea of this maneuver, ambuscading under the interests of pretended economy, was to cast disgrace upon a Union General, whose sagacity, ability, experience, and energy drove Hood's rebel army in trepidation and indecent haste across the waters of the Tennessee river.

PERSONAL.

Dr. Livingstone is to be knighted for having found himself after being so long lost.

Andy Johnson has taken quarters for the winter in Washington, in expectation that something will "turn up."

The New Orleans Times says General Twiggs, in his own right and in right of his wife, was for many years the wealthiest General officer in our army.

It is stated that Albert D. Richardson, the victim of the late Tribune office shooting affair, was about to remove to Chicago and to have taken editorial charge of the Republican of that city.

Froude's history of England has been completed. The author put the last touches upon the last volume while residing this summer in the south of Ireland. The work closes with the defeat of the Spanish armies.

Louisa Muhlbach, after her many successes as a novelist, is anxious to acquire fame as a dramatist, and to emulate her celebrated countrywoman, Charlotte Birchpfeiffer, in that field of literature. She intends to dramatize a number of her own works.

Spain's lawyer in his country is Sydney Webster, a son-in-law of Secretary Fish. His salary is $40,000 in gold. He hires spies and detectives for the Government of Spain, and is the adviser in contract purchases of arms, munitions of war and commissary supplies.

By a deed recorded in Cleveland, Ohio, last week, Maggie Mahon conveys to John Stanton the undivided half of a certain lot of land, "in consideration of the payment by the said John Stanton of $5, and his marriage to the grantor the day immediately after this deed is made."

Judge Wilkins, of the United States District Court, announced, in discharging the Grand Jury at Detroit, recently, that it was probably the last time he should ever address a Grand Jury of the Court, as it was his purpose to avail himself of the provisions of the act of Congress permitting aged Judges to retire from the Bench upon full pay.

NEVADA.

Treasure City Dispatch

TREASURE CITY, Dec. 15.—The weather we are now enjoying cannot be surpassed in any country.

The Chloride consolidated company discharged to-day 112 men. The Aurora consolidated have discharged most of their hands, and it is said they will stop work on their mine shortly. Rumors are plentiful as to the cause of the action of the above named companies, some attributing it to the high price of wages, others to a bearing movement on the part of the stockholders.

The Aurora South and Hidden Treasure mines are still working a large force. The former company is taking out about seventy tons of ore daily, and as soon as their north extension is driven, which will be shortly, they expect to increase that quantity to 100 tons daily.

Wells, Fargo & Co., shipped from their office in this city two bars weighing 146 pounds, valued at $2,800 to Messrs Seligman & Co., San Francisco, and for the Eberhardt company, three bars valued at $4,769 91, to New York.

The population of Eureka is said to be 400 and increasing rapidly. There is considerable talk here of running our esteemed fellow citizen, W. B. Thornburg, of this city, for Governor.

Elko Dispatch.

ELKO, Nev., Dec. 15.—Matters are exceedingly quiet in this locality. Oppenheimer & Co. yesterday received seven thousand pounds of ore from the Cope District. Fifteen thousand pounds more will arrive to-morrow. It will be shipped below for reduction. News from Cope report very bright prospects.

A petition is being circulated among the Judges and members of the bar in this city praying for the passage of an act for the founding of a law library here.

Madame Camilla Urso has tendered a monster concert to the Mercantile Library Association. It is to come off in two months, at the Mechanics' Pavilion, and will last three days. The musicians, vocal and instrumental, to be gathered from all parts of California, and the whole affair to be conducted on a plan similar to the Boston Peace Jubilee.

Recent advices from Japan report the suspension of A. Schuman, a Yokohama merchant, with liabilities amounting to $80,000, mostly in San Francisco.

It is stated that a firm in Truckee, largely indebted in this city, recently had their goods boxed up for shipment to Chicago, with the alleged design of defrauding creditors. The parties were not successful in making good their escape.

The Bank of California and the Omnibus Rail road Co. have declared a 1 per cent. dividend for November.

OREGON.

The Blade has an article urging the construction of locks on the Yamhill river. This project is a feasible one, and has been allowed to slumber two long.

The newspapers in all parts of the State are telling of ripe strawberries. It would be hard to tell which locality is ahead, for there are strawberries everywhere.

The schooner Alaska, Captain Godfrey, was wrecked on the 30th day of November last, while trying to get out over the Coquille river bar. The cargo consisted of lumber, which, with the vessel, will prove a total loss. The wreck was sold at auction and purchased by the Johnson Bros. for a nominal sum.

A correspondent of the Statesman, writing from Coos Bay, says there has been talk there that many persons are about to be prosecuted for cutting timber on Government lands. The people are willing to pay for the land, but it has not yet been surveyed, though they have often tried to get it done. We call the attention of the Surveyor General for Oregon to the wants of the people there.

From the Statesman: Mr. P. Abbey, of Newport, near the ocean on Yaquina Bay, informs us that a corporation at that place has secured a subscription of $14,000 for the building of a schooner of about 200 tons burthen, intended for the San Francisco trade. Lumbering is already an important business on the bay, and the schooner is intended to be the commencement of a regular line of vessels, to be built and owned there. As the capital is secured, the work on the schooner will commence immediately and be finished early next summer.

Just arrived per steamer Ajax, the most elegant assortment of velvet cloaks, broche shawls, furs and fancy goods, suitable for holiday presents, to which Mrs. Levy invites the attention of the public, feeling confident any one wishing to make a handsome present, at a reasonable rate, cannot do better than avail themselves of this opportunity.

A LADY IN THIS CITY, WHO HAS USED A Grover & Baker Machine for eight years, and is familiar with the Wheeler & Wilson, Florence, and Singer Machines, says of the Grover & Baker: "I have used it on all kinds of work; I like it better than any other; the stitch is more elastic and more perfect than any other; and after washing, it presents a better appearance than the work of any other machine. The tension adapts itself immediately to every varying thickness of fabric, and the cotton can be used without re-winding. In quilting, it makes a perfect stitch, and no other machine answers but this."

Diverse Biblical Versions.

A teacher of a Boston public school was prosecuted for an illegal assault, committed, as alleged, upon a pupil of Catholic parentage, who, in obedience to the commands of his parents and his priest, refused to join in the daily repetition of the Ten Commandments by the scholars. The legality of thus requiring this repetition, and the consequent legality of the punishment for noncompliance with it, were the questions before the magistrate. His decision was in favor of the teacher, under the present laws of Massachusetts. But we refer to the case that we may quote, from the correspondence of the New York World, this interesting statement, as follows:

The trial, however, was mainly useful in developing what the Catholic church deems the objectionable features of the King James version of the Bible, so far as it relates to the Ten Commandments. This precise point, I apprehend, is not fully understood by those who, upon other points, discuss the question of the Bible in common schools with much intelligence. The difference between the Douay version of the Bible and the King James version can best be seen by taking as an example the 20th chapter of Exodus, which contains the decalogue. I give side by side

CATHOLIC VERSION.	PROTESTANT VERSION.
III. Thou shalt not have strange Gods before me.	III Thou shalt have no other Gods before me.
IV. Thou shalt not make to thyself a graven thing, nor the likeness of anything that is in the heaven above, or in the earth beneath, nor of those things that are in the water under the earth	IV Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of anything that is in the heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth
V. Thou shalt not adore them, nor serve them; I am the Lord thy God, mighty, jealous, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children, &c.	V Thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them; for I the Lord thy God, am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children, &c

While the fourth verse of this twentieth chapter commands, according to our Protestant version, that we shall not make unto ourselves "any graven image," the Roman Catholic version declares we shall not make unto ourselves "a graven thing." This controversy, therefore, turns upon the use of the word "image" in the Protestant, instead of the word "thing" which is found in the Roman Catholic version. Catholics insist that the word "image" is not only misused in the King James translation, but is so deliberately misused that no amount of charity can excuse the wicked purpose.

Another difference between the two versions, which Catholics assert to be material, is found in the fifth verse of this (20th) chapter. The King James version forbids to "bow down thyself to them," that is, to "graven images" referred to in the preceding (4th) verse. The Douay version, on the other hand, only forbids to "adore them" meaning thereby the "graven things" mentioned in the preceding (4th) verse of that version.

The largest and finest lot of Ladies, Mink Collars, Muffs, Victorines, also, Children's Fur Sets, to be sold before the Holidays, at reduced prices, at the New York Store of M. Moskowitz, 125 Front street.

Show Windows.—The show windows of Meussdorffer Bros. are a sight to behold. It surpasses anything of the kind we ever saw. His palatial store is opposite the new Columbian hotel. It attracts great attention from passers by. They pause to behold the beautiful display of hats. The seat of intellect, is highly honored by Meussdorffer Bros., for they prepare for it such elegant coverings.

Ladies, don't fail to call and examine those elegant gold necklaces at Stone's, and such a splendid lot of new style lockets and pearl set rings, garnet, pearl, moss, agate, coral and diamond setts can be found no where else in this city.

Important News.—To gentlemen who are married, those who are going to be, or those who would like to be: If you want to get a fine Suit of Clothing for the Holidays or to get married in, you can find them at very low rates by calling at Beck & Waldman's, corner Front and Washington streets, Portland Oregon.

Pushing Enterprise.—There is no city on the Pacific coast that has a finer Clothing and Gents Furnishing Goods store than our City of Portland, which has been opened by the enterprising firm Barman Bros. in the Odd Fellows' Temple building. Go and see them.

Important to Parents and Guardians.—Parents and Guardians are always anxious to have their children, or those [illegible], well taught, well behaved, and last but not least, well dressed. Heretofore there has been great trouble in procuring good, neat and well fitting Suits for Boys. Kohn & Fishel, No. 91 Front street, have now in stock and are constantly manufacturing in Portland, excellent Boys' Clothing of Oregon and Eastern [illegible] for all ages and at low prices. Persons wishing to purchase Suits for Boys will do well to call on them, as they will find any quality and quantity at very low rates. Kohn & Fishel are so well known to have the largest and best stock of Clothing in Oregon, that it requires no further advice to purchase there.

The subjoined correspondence sufficiently explains itself

Portland, Oregon, Nov. 15, 1869.

Messrs Everson & Haines, General Agents New England Mutual Life Insurance Company, Boston:

Gentlemen:—On my own behalf and in the name of my orphan children, I beg to thank you, and through you the New England Mutual Life Insurance Company of Boston, for its munificence in paying me my [illegible] policy on the life of my husband. On the 21st January, 1869, misfortune compelled me to forego the payment of the last premium, which non-payment in any other company would have lost me my policy—but I am now overjoyed with the receipt of the amount of the policy (less the amount of the unpaid premium only), thanks to the equity of the Massachusetts Lapse Laws, that must bless many widows and their children. I recommend the New England Mutual to all who would provide against possible misfortune. Sincerely thank you again, gentlemen, for the payment, and also for your generous and gentlemanly assistance in the matter.

Respectfully, BESSEY MILLER.

Portland, Oregon, Nov. 15, 1869.

Messrs Everson & Haines, General Agents of the New England Mutual Life Insurance Company of Boston.

Gentlemen:—Having taken a lively interest in the affairs of the large and destitute family, left by an old resident of this city, who died Aug. 2, 1869, and who was insured in the New England Mutual Life Insurance Company, we take pleasure in making the following statement for the information of the public:

A. K. C. Miller was insured by ordinary Life Policy No. 13,054, bearing date January 21, 1863. He paid annual payments to January 21, 1868, inclusive. Since then nothing has been paid. He died August 2, 1869, over eighteen months after last payment of premium, yet your company working under the Equitable Lapse Laws of Massachusetts, pays the widow and orphans the whole policy, deducting only the premium due; while in all other companies doing business here, about which we know anything, the policy would long since have been forfeited.

By the New England Mutual, the widow has been paid $4,550 50. This we consider munificent, more especially when we take into consideration that the family would not have received a cent from any other company doing business on this coast. This in our estimation is enough to recommend this company above all others. This is Equity, this is Mutuality. We, therefore, commend this company to the public, as the only company that has no forfeitures.

We herewith inclose you the acknowledgments of the widow.

Respectfully yours, etc.

To Messrs. C. Bills, J. Myer, Geo. H. Flanders and M. Sellers:

Gentlemen:—Your favor of yesterday, inclosing "acknowledgments of Mrs. Miller," is at hand.

Please accept our thanks for the voluntary justice you have done the company we represent.

Yours Very Truly,

On Sea and Land the Great Restorative.

As a remedy for the sea-sickness which besets the voyager on his way to and from California, and for the disorders which assail the unacclimated emigrant in the unhealthy districts of the interior, HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS will be found equally efficacious. On no part of the continent has the value of this pure vegetable elixir, as a specific for epidemic diseases, been so clearly demonstrated, as in the new States and Territories lying contiguous to the Pacific ocean. As a means of preventing the distressing and dangerous attacks of fever, and the dysenteric and diarrheal complaints which are engendered by poison in the air, or by the use of water containing a mineral or vegetable taint inimical to health, it is confessedly superior to any other tonic and alterative in the world. It acts as a preventive agent by strengthening and exhilerating the whole physical organization, and producing a regular habit of body. All that the human system requires, to enable it to resist the deleterious effects of Malaria, is increased vigor and vital activity, and these are the inevitable results of a course of this celebrated tonic and corrective. It promotes appetite, facilitates digestion, controls the liver, regulates and braces the nerves, superinduces sound and wholesome sleep, invigorates without exciting the pulse, and imparts buoyancy to the animal spirits. The body and mind toned and cheered by its gentle operation, are in a condition to repel all exterior influences which tend to produce disease. Flux, dysentery, bilious remittents, chills and fever, rheumatism, &c., are almost always caused by atmospheric poison acting upon an unfortified system. Brace up the organism and cheer the spirits, with this wholesome medicated stimulant, and then neither the malaria generated by the filth of crowded cities, nor the exhalation of new soils, nor the vapid water of a springless region, will be likely to produce any serious consequences.

"OUR HOME PHYSICIAN,"

By GEORGE M. BEARD, A. M., M. D., of the University of New York. It contains over 1,000 pages, fully illustrated. Most Family Medical books heretofore written are incomplete and unreliable, or their treatment out of date. This is an entirely new work, based upon latest and best authorities and successful professional experience. It excels in plainness, candor, thoroughness and adaptability to general use. Over three years have been devoted to its careful preparation. Quackery, Humbuggery and old fogy dogmas exposed. It is highly endorsed by leading members of the Medical profession wherever it is introduced.

This night [illegible] parting [illegible]
I give my final greeting
May memories of [illegible] olden times

[illegible]
[illegible] old times, boys Here's how

The flag, the dear old flag we love
That braved the storm an [illegible]
Of [illegible] times when forth [illegible]
And chance gave way the battle
[illegible]
Old Look at a beckling [illegible]
[illegible] up and drain a part [illegible]
God bless the flag. Here's how

Silence Remember all th[illegible]
Our comrades ever cherished
Who dropped so silently away
The gallant hearts who perished
On many fields the men we l[illegible]
Whose memories thrill us now—
God bless them in their hon[illegible] graves
Our comrades [illegible] Here's how

The ladies fill your goblets high
All honors to them giving
The soldier's constant champions
They make our life worth living,
With loyal hearts in reverence,
Each to [illegible] bow
Tender and true, Up! every one,
"Sweethearts and wives Here's how

Now while each eye is kindling bright
Each warm heart quickly beating,
A last word, mine, to say "good bye"—
Good luck, and hopes for meeting
In the dim future all of you!
My voice will scarce allow
The words, but drink my parting toast—
Good-bye the men! Here's how —Army and Navy Journal

Northern Pacific.

"Carleton" of the Boston Journal, who was out last summer with one of the exploring parties on the route of the Northern Pacific railway, and who is well informed on most matters connected with the enterprise, has recently written a long letter concerning it, from which we make the following extracts:

A surveying party is now in the field, or rather in the woods, between Lake Superior and the Mississippi, endeavoring to determine the best route westward from the lake. The line undoubtedly will touch the Missouri near the mouth of the Yellow Stone, as it will pass up the valley of that stream. The country between the lake and the Red River of the North is very level. Beyond that stream it is most of the way a rolling prairie, with timber along the streams and coal deposits cropping out from the bluffs.

The line, entering the rich valley of the Yellow Stone, will pass through a magnificent region—the summer pasturage of the buffalo. While at St. Paul recently we met General Hancock, who had returned from a visit to Montana. He spoke of that Territory as being the finest region for pasturage he had ever [illegible]. The hills are covered with [illegible] highly nutritious, upon which buffalo, elk, and deer fatten in winter and summer alike. He remarked that when the country becomes settled it will produce mutton of a delicious flavor. The Rocky mountain sheep and antelope of this region are said to be superior to all others. The line leaves the valley of the Yellow Stone and crosses the narrow divide to the head waters of the Missouri, through a depression called Bozeman's Pass, through which an excellent carriage road has already been constructed. It will probably pass through the town of Helena, the [illegible] capital of Montana, a place of 10,000 inhabitants. The mines of the vicinity are exceedingly rich, and the surrounding country is developing rapidly. The yield of wheat in Montana the present season was very large, but there is no market for agricultural products, and the people are waiting impatiently for the construction of the Northern Pacific road.

The line will probably cross the Rocky Mountains [illegible] Deer Lodge Pass, where the ascent is so gradual and the dividing ridge so low that a mining company has dug a ditch and taken the water from a stream whose natural flow is into the Missouri, through the pass to their mines on the [illegible] slope. So the Missouri is feeding the Columbia. Mr. Roberts, the engineer making the explorations, says it is a clear case of highway robbery. The line follows down the Bitter Root Valley, across the great plain of the Columbia to Walla Walla, and then crosses the Cascade range to Puget Sound.

There are [illegible] remarkable characteristics to [illegible] on this route that distinguishes it from the Central and Southern lines. Although four hundred miles north of the Central there is far less [illegible] than on that line; the elevation is not so great by two thousand feet. The summit is a trifle less than 5,000, against 8,280 on the Union Pacific. The line follows the course of streams, except across the level prairie region between Lake Superior and the Missouri. There are only two [illegible] that between the Missouri and the Columbia and that between the Columbia and Puget Sound. The gradients will be less on this line than any other across the continent. The highest grade will not exceed 80 feet, while on the Central Pacific there are many miles of 116 feet to the mile. It passes through a country susceptible of settlement the entire distance. There are no alkaline [illegible]. There is an abundance of [illegible]. The Company will have no trouble in obtaining the best of ties. Coal abounds. The line passes through the richest mining regions of Montana, now producing more gold than any other State or Territory in the Union. The western terminus will be one of the noblest bays in the world, already the great lumbering center of the Pacific coast. It will traverse a region yet to become the New England of the Pacific coast. It is the shortest possible line across the Continent. It will [illegible] the distance between New York and Yokohama, or Shanghae, or Canton, [illegible] hundred miles. If teas and silks and China goods are taken across the Continent, it must be by this route. If English passengers bound for China ever turn their faces [illegible] they will take this route. The time will [illegible] when it will be the highway of the nations. The Columbia and its tributaries will yet furnish water power to numerous manufactories. The whirl of machinery, the ring of the anvil, the [illegible] of saws are long will resound amid the mighty forests of the western slope. Nature has endowed it with her choicest gifts, a mild climate and a genial sun. The balmy southern winds give to Oregon and Washington the climate of England.

In the coming years a metropolis—the peer of San Francisco—will rise upon the shores of that beautiful bay of the Northwest. Such is the outlook.

The [illegible] of the Northern Pacific railroad will be the beginning of the development of material [illegible] throughout all that vast region of the [illegible]. I am ignorant of the plans of the [illegible] enterprise further than this [illegible] determination to begin the [illegible] the road as soon as possible. They have [illegible] enormous expense in carrying on their surveys and are not the men to turn back [illegible] engaged in such an undertaking, [illegible] aided by Congress, although large [illegible] of money will be needed, they are confident that when the public come to understand the [illegible] of the enterprise they will obtain means to build the road.

Sixty Dakotas Burned Alive.—Your readers are more or less familiar with the name of Two Bear the greatest Indian Chief in this portion of the country, of the Yankton band of Dakotas. His party met with a great disaster a short time since. They were out on a hunt and were camped at the head of Knife River. All day preceding the night on which misfortune came upon them, they say the air was full of smoke, but, being a calm day could not tell the direction from which it came. About midnight a brisk breeze sprang up and before they could get out of their tepees, the fire was down upon them. It is scarcely possible to describe the scene of confusion that followed, or the suffering endured.

The fire consumed sixty tepees, and burned over sixty of the Indians, besides many of the ponies. Nine Indians have died, and there is a band of forty tepees out on the prairie that have not been heard from since the fire. Most of the badly burned, also the ponies, were left with this band. Their provisions and blankets, in many cases, were entirely consumed, and their sufferings in consequence are great.

Two Bear says the fire was worse than his fight with General Sully out at the White H[illegible]. If the suffering was confined to the warriors alone it would not have been so bad, but it extends to women and children. I saw one body with its left hand nearly burned to a crisp, and the fingers were burned off to the second joints and the stubs of fingers were drawn back. The little thing could not have been more than eight months old, his face and head were also badly burned. It was crying bitterly, and the mother mourning most pitifully. The sight was truly distressing.

Two Bear has gone to the Grand River Agency to see if he cannot get something for tepees, as the weather is quite cold, having frozen to the depth of an inch on barrels of water standing out doors.
—Yankton Dakotaian.

Duluth, the Lake Superior "terminus" of the N. P. R. R., was laid out something as Boston was, but instead of cow tracks the Indian trails formed the basis of the streets. But Duluth has begun the work of straightening and widening its ways already.

The Pacific Railroad in Winter.—H. Bronson, General Freight Agent of the Union Pacific Railroad in New York, in answer to inquiries relative to the liability of the road being blockaded by snow the coming winter writes as follows:

Very many questions are asked at this time relative to the liability of the Union and Central Pacific Railroad to be blockaded, and trains on them delayed by snow during the coming winter. In reply I would state that neither road anticipates any trouble whatever from snow or any other cause incident to the winter months in that part of the country; precautions have been taken to provide against a season of thrice the severity of last winter. The real snowy season in that region does not commence until about the 20th of March or the 1st of April. Last winter the line was troubled in consequence of the want of knowledge of what precise localities were most affected by snow, it being its first winter. With last winter's experience however the roads have been enabled to guard all exposed points securely against any obstacle that may occur from the snowy season in that part of the country.

INSTRUCTIONS TO BIDDERS AND POSTMASTERS;

Containing also conditions to be incorporated in the contracts to the extent the Department may deem proper.

1. Seven minutes are allowed to each intermediate office, when not otherwise specified, for assorting the mails, but on railroad and steamboat routes there is to be no more delay than is sufficient for an exchange of the mail pouches.

2. On railroad and steamboat lines, and other routes where the mode of conveyance admits of it, the special agents of the Post Office Department, also post office blanks, mail bags, locks and keys, are to be conveyed without extra charge.

3. On railroad and steamboat lines the route agents of the Department, also the British and Canada mails, when offered, and the agents accompanying them, are conveyed without charge; and for the use of the United States agents a commodious car, or part of a car, properly lighted, warmed, and furnished, and adapted to the convenient separation and due security of the mails, is to be provided by the contractor, under the direction of the Department.

Railroad and steamboat companies are required to take the mail from, and deliver it into the postoffices at the beginning and end of their routes, and to and from all offices not more than eighty rods from a station or landing. Proposals may be submitted by the companies for the performance of all other side service—that is, for offices over eighty rods from a station or landing.

There will be "way bills" prepared by postmasters or other agents of the Department, to accompany the mails conveyed on railroads and steamers, specifying the number and destination of the several bags. On other principal routes, likewise, receipts will be required and way bills forwarded, the latter to be examined by the several postmasters, to insure regularity in the delivery of mails.

4. No pay will be made for trips not performed; and for each of such omissions, not satisfactorily explained, three times the pay of the trip will be deducted. For arrivals so far behind time as to break connection with depending mails, and not sufficiently excused, one-fourth of the compensation for the trip is subject to forfeiture. For repeated delinquencies of the kind herein specified enlarged penalties proportioned to the nature thereof, and the importance of the mail may be made.

5. For leaving behind or throwing off the mails, or any portion of them, for the admission of passengers, or for being concerned in setting up or running an express conveying intelligence in advance of the mail, a quarter's pay may be deducted.

6. Fines will be imposed unless the delinquency be promptly and satisfactorily explained by certificates of postmasters or the affidavits of other credible persons, for failing to arrive in contract time, for neglecting to take the mail from or deliver it into a postoffice, for suffering it to be wet, injured, destroyed, robbed or lost; and for refusing, after demand, to convey the mail as frequently as the contractor runs, or is concerned in running, a coach, car, or steamboat on a route.

7. The Postmaster General may annul the contract for repeated failures to run agreeably to contract; for violating the post office laws or disobeying the instructions of the Department, for refusing to discharge a carrier when required by the Department to do so; for running an express as aforesaid, or for transporting persons or packages conveying mailable matter out of the mail.

8. The Postmaster General may order an increase of service on a route by allowing therefor a pro rata increase on the contract pay. He may change schedules of departures and arrivals in all cases and particularly to make them conform to connections with railroads, without increase of pay, provided the running time be not abridged. The Postmaster General may also discontinue or curtail the service, in whole or in part, in order to place on the route superior service, or whenever the public interests in his judgment shall require such discontinuance or curtailment for any other cause, he allowing as full indemnity to contractor one month's extra pay on the amount of service dispensed with, and a pro rata compensation for the amount of service retained and continued.

9. Payments will be made by collections from or drafts on postmasters or otherwise after the expiration of each quarter, say in November, February, May and August.

10. The distances are given according to the best information, but no increased pay will be allowed should they be greater than advertised, if the points to be supplied are correctly stated. Bidders must inform themselves on this point, and also in reference to the weight of the mail, the road [illegible] hills [illegible] bridges [illegible] and all other [illegible] obstructions to [illegible] distance [illegible] [illegible] after this advertisement is issued, and also [illegible] extra pay if the distance be not increased.

11. Bids [illegible] by [illegible] o'clock p. m. of March [illegible] 1870 [illegible]. Bids received after that time will not be considered [illegible].

16. The bid should be sealed, superscribed "Mail Proposals, State of Oregon," [illegible]

dressed "Second Assistant Postmaster General," and sent by mail, not by or to an agent; and postmasters will not receive proposals for any kind [illegible] to their [illegible] terms.

[illegible] will be extended and terminate [illegible] the Department [illegible] on the 1st day of July, 1870, but the service must be begun on that day [illegible] next after it [illegible].

[illegible] interest in [illegible] usually cannot be allowed [illegible] such action that they will be accepted by [illegible].

18. [illegible] or more [illegible] from a station, will [illegible] after [illegible] report their [illegible] the Post [illegible] assume per supply from the [illegible].
